

Be an Earthworm Real Estate Agent!

Earthworms are looking for the perfect home – right in your neighborhood! You are a successful Earthworm Real Estate Agent, and you know exactly what they're looking for. Create a brochure that will bring millions of earthworms wiggling your way.

Instructions

1. Fold an 8 ½ x 11-inch piece of paper into a tri-fold, as shown.
2. On the cover, draw a picture of an earthworm's dream home.
3. Inside, list all of the features that earthworms look for in a new habitat.
4. Draw and/or choose pictures to illustrate this habitat's best features.

Before you begin making your brochure, think about all of the things that make a perfect home for earthworms.

Food Source -What kinds of yummy earthworm food will they find at this new home?

Soil - Remember, earthworms need healthy soil that's moist, but not too wet.

What else make this a perfect habitat for earthworms?
